Panel on Environmental Affairs

20170327	18. Mr CHAN Hak-kan, Mr KWOK Wai-keung, Mr Andrew WAN, Mr HO Kai-ming and Mr Nathan LAW sought information on the Administration's measures, if any, to relieve people with financial hardship from the burden of MSW charges, such as by granting exemptions/subsidies to the low-income families, elderly persons receiving Old Age Living Allowance and recipients of Comprehensive Social Security Assistance Scheme ("CSSA").	Waste
20170327	24. Mr LEUNG Kwok-hung and Mr Nathan LAW further	Waste

	queried whether the recyclables collected at [recycling bins] were indeed reused or recycled eventually. Mr Nathan LAW enquired about the measures and resources to support the recycling trade whose viability was often susceptible to the market prices of recyclables.
20170626	8. Mr HUI Chi-fung, Mr CHAN Hak-kan and Mr Nathan LAW expressed disappointment about the lack of RE target in Hong Kong by 2030. Mr LAW opined that the Administration should provide a comprehensive plan and step up efforts for developing RE.	Climate
20170626	15. Mr Nathan LAW expressed concern about the relatively high carbon emissions from vessels and aircrafts in Hong Kong under international standard. He enquired whether any target had been set for reducing carbon emissions from the maritime and aviation sectors in Hong Kong.	Climate
20170626	42. Mr Nathan LAW enquired about the determination of whether the current AQOs which took effect from 1 January 2014 were applicable for conducting the air quality impact assessment of a public works project under the Environmental Impact Assessment Ordinance (Cap. 499) ("EIAO"), including whether the EIAO requirements based on the current AQOs might apply to certain ongoing public works projects for which environmental impact assessments ("EIAs") or environmental permits ("EPs") had been conducted/issued before the AQOs took effect.
